

Lesson Observation and Reflection Tool - Structured Learner Engagement

Observer _____ Teacher _____ Class _____ Date _____

As you observe the lesson, check productive examples of structured student responses to instruction. Use the comments section, to elaborate on note-worthy instructional practices.

Nonverbal/Physical Responses:

Focusing visually on someone/something _____
Pointing at something _____
Marking: Underlining Highlighting Circling _____
Signaling: Hands-up. Thumbs up. Stand up. _____

Verbal Responses:

Choral (Unified class) _____
Partner (Sharing with a partner) _____
Group (Discussing with a group) _____
Using a provided sentence starter _____
Individual (Calling on volunteers) _____
Individual (Calling randomly) _____

Written Responses:

Copying from the board _____
Filling in a blank with an answer _____
Structured note-taking _____
Completing a sentence starter _____
Solving a problem _____
Composing a brief response _____

Equity Considerations: Calling on a range of students

Gender: Males and Females _____ Ethnic Background _____
Language Proficiency _____ Special Ed./General Ed. _____
Academic Status _____ Classroom Seating Location _____

Two instructional practices that encouraged student engagement:

A missed opportunity for increasing student engagement:

Other Comments:
